

SNAPSHOT DAY COMMENTS

- We enjoy taking part in our community. Our library offers programs that make our children enthusiastic about reading!
- The library is a vital resource of information, programs, assistance, knowledge, and of course READING!
- Just a nice place to relax. Library has been in this town all of my life. (62 years)
- I use the library weekly- it is an important part of my life- reading is essential to an interesting life...We have an informed, bright, and friendly librarian which adds to my wonderful library experiences.
- This is a great place to get books so you can be transformed to the place only books can take you.
- Our library is wonderful. It is a warm and friendly place to spend time. Our staff is fabulous and always helpful.
- The library is a great place to come and take out books, to research a subject, or just sit and read newspapers.
- We need you!
- Libraries funding should be increased, not cut!
- A library us a fundamental part to an intellectual democracy.
- The library is an important resource for our children during their learning process.
- We always get great help and find what we are looking for. All staff should be as amazing as the staff at our library!
- Libraries are a safe haven and comfortable- never prevent a child's access to read!
- Wonderful programs and librarians, thanks so much for all of the services that your library provides!
- We need our library funding! I bring my children to this library at least once a week and the librarians are wonderful! They are so helpful to us! The children's programs are awesome!
- I have been a supporter of the libraries since I was a child. One of my earliest memories was my mother bringing me to his library, and I have continued this "tradition" with my own children.
- This library is a sacred place where you can let your imagination roam. You can live in history, and research anything you don't know the answer to. It is a social forum, a neighborhood meeting place and a safe haven for children. This library may be small but it is the "heart of our town..."
- This library has a huge impact on our community. Loss of funds would be devastation to the entire community.
- I love your library! It is an invaluable resource for us. I am currently looking for a job, and being that I do not have a computer at home it is the perfect place to go with such genuinely nice staff.
- We treasure our library!
- Our library works miracles with bare-bone budgeting and limited space. In these times of economical trouble, we really need our libraries!
- It is a great place to be, you will always see a smiling face eager to assist you.
- I find it to be a vital resource that should be fully funded in these times of financial and economical insecurity.

- My library encompasses an abundant amount of research and resources that help me complete my research papers.
- I love the quietness of the library! It allows me to have a great place to study without any distractions.
- Our library provides a well organized setting with all the right resources right at my finger tips.
- The library is definitely a favorite place for my family and I to go!
- Very helpful and courteous; always willing to go the extra mile.
- I love it here because it has all the information I need and I feel very comfortable. The staff is very approachable.
- This library is by far the best asset of our town!
- I would not have books to read without this library. I can honestly say I would be lost without it.
- The library offers many great services such as large print books for older people who can not see as well. They are also very helpful in helping pick out great reading material.
- Awesome friendly service and collection of top notch best sellers.
- The library and its staff are a constant source of help and information.
- Our library always gives back to the community and deserves all of the funding it gets.
- Our library is the most popular place in town! We have a great supply of books and amazing staff.
- This library is truly my second home! It enriches both my social and intellectual lives. The resources it provides are for a wide spectrum of people and I feel my library card is the most important card in my wallet!
- An adult needs a sense of childhood and books provide that. Children need a sense of what an adult is capable of becoming and a librarian provides that. In a world filled with cruelty we need sense and sensibility and the library provides that. Long live the library!
- Reference librarians are special-competent, professional and friendly.
- A wonderfully inspiring facility where creative ideas have the ability to bloom.
- I come to this library 3-4 times per week and I would absolutely miss the warmth, quietness, and sheer amount of valued item I check out on a weekly basis. Long love the arts; they are for the young, the old, and everyone in between.
- This is an essential service! Especially when times are hard, free public libraries are the life blood of our community. They are especially important for the free internet service.
- I love my hometown library. I consider it a source of essential support for personal interests including research and entertainment.
- My children love our library! The great programs here have helped them grow to love reading; this is true early intervention.
- Thanks to the books and videos I would never in a million years see without it, the library enriches my life in ways too complex and numerous to count. I would be immeasurably poorer without it.
- I love this library. I come here everyday to do my homework. It is a part of our community I couldn't imagine this town without.
- Our library is a wonderful source of information and entertainment! Everyone's friendly and helpful.

- Libraries are invaluable to me, and deserve as much patronage and support as we can offer.
- Buying books is very expensive and there is nothing worse than buying a book, starting to read it, and realizing you do not like it. Without the library I simply would not read at all, which would be such a shame.
- My library is a haven from my daily life and problems, I truly love my library.
- The library is a very welcoming place-everyone on the staff is always pleasant and helpful. They go the extra length to get any information I need. The children's programs are great always and there is always something for every age.
- I believe the library is the heart of the community. It is where everyone, regardless of age, gender, race religious beliefs, etc. can come to find information, the newest fiction and nonfiction books, movies and tapes for no money.
- Libraries are much needed resources in all communities throughout the state.
- I feel that libraries are an absolutely essential ingredient in the mix of educational opportunities offered unselfishly to all segments of society without regard for position, status, or political persuasion.
- Libraries are a vital source for information that is up to date in both print and online. I can always find books for recreational use and enrichment on subjects that look interesting for further study. Support the local library! It is the best place to spend my money.
- The local library is one of my favorite places to visit. In this economy where books are so expensive, I depend on borrowing my reading material.
- Our library has phenomenal staff, and they are more than happy to constantly get me material. I can't say enough about them!
